General Information and Instructions

The Directory contains the following information:

1. An index listing key officials' names and both FTS and local phone numbers;
2. The official administrative mail and street addresses of major Service offices;
3. Instructions for the correct use of the addresses listed;
4. A method of notifying the National Office of address changes of Service offices even though these addresses are not listed in this Directory;
5. Some general information about Service administrative mailing practices. (Detailed information about Service administrative mailing practices and use of the postal system is contained in IRM 1(15)89, Mail and Transportation Management Handbook. General mail instructions are provided in Chapter 100, IRM (1(15)29, Correspondence Handbook).

Reporting Changes in Personnel and Addresses in this Directory

The Chief, Facilities Management Branch, in each Region will report changes to be made in this directory. Make pen-and-ink changes on a copy of Document 5143 for for your Region and send them to Chief, National Office Facilities Management Branch, PM:S:N:FM National Office. These changes should be sent in immediately following an address, organizational, or personnel change.

Requests for action on incorrectly addressed mail received from the National Office as well as other Service Offices which cannot be identified as having been generated from one of the Publishing Systems (IRM 1(17)22), should be referred to PM:S:N:FM in the National Office. These submissions should be made by memorandum and should be forwarded through the Regional Administrative Mail Coordinator in the regional office. Please include the envelope in which the material was received and a short description of the contents.

Changes in Office Addresses Not in Directory

The Chief, Facilities Management Branch, in each region will report address changes of offices not listed in this directory, except for those offices that have no Service employees permanently assigned to them.

The addresses of offices not listed are needed so the National Office can maintain a current mailing list of sub-offices to which printed matter can be sent direct. These changes should be submitted to Chief, Publishing Services Branch PM:S:FM:P, Attn: Distribution, National Office.

Definitions and Use of Address

Administrative Mail Addresses

Except for the items listed below, all administrative mail, i.e., mail between Service offices, should be sent to the administrative mail addresses shown in this directory. Administrative mail addresses are shown as follows:

Title and Symbols
Internal Revenue Service
P.O. Box xxx
Atlanta, Georgia xxxxx

The following items, even though some of them are types of administrative mail, should be sent to the public mail street address:

a. Parcel Post
b. Freight
c. Express Mail
d. Special Delivery
e. Consolidated mail in pouches (see Mailing Practices below for definition of consolidated mail.)

Consolidated mail in envelopes should be sent to the administrative mail address.

Street Mail Addresses

Street mail is mail from the general public (non-tax related), private businesses, and other Government agencies. For the purpose of this directory the items in (a) through (e) above are considered street mail.

The street mail addresses are shown as follows:

Regional Commissioner
Internal Revenue Service
xxx Peachtree Street, NE
Atlanta, Georgia xxxx

Mailing Practices

This Section contains some general comments related to the use of this directory. Information about Service mailing practices is provided in IRM 1(15)69, Mail and Transportation Management Handbook, and IRM 1(15)29, Correspondence Handbook.

Consolidated Mail

Consolidated mail is several pieces of administrative mail enclosed in pouches that are going to the same Service office. Chapter 400 of IRM 1(15)69, Mail and Transportation Management Handbook, provides detailed information about the use of consolidated mail.

Express Mail

Express Mail is a service that has been designed to meet the increasing demand for fast, secure, and reliable mail service. It is a service which guarantees delivery to regions, districts, and service centers within twelve working hours after pickup from the National Office. It has a tracing capability and reconstruction insurance.

Mail for Field Offices in the Washington, D.C. Area

Mail for the Washington Area Office of the Baltimore District should be sent through the Baltimore District Office unless the sender has the address of the Washington Area Office and the item to be mailed is supposed to be sent directly to the Washington Area Office. Mail for that area office, e.g., requests to transfer TDA's or requests for other kinds of information normally exchanged by field offices, should not be sent to the National Office.

Major Offices in the Same City or Building

In several cities two or more major offices are either located in close proximity to one another or are in the same building: e.g., in Atlanta, Georgia, the Regional Office and the District Office are in the same building. It is especially important that the sender use the correct administrative mail address when sending mail to cities such as Atlanta; otherwise, there is the risk of having mail delivered several hours late.

The National Office Addresses

All mail (administrative and public) for the National Office is sent to one address. No room numbers are used since room changes are frequent. Instead of room numbers, please use the title and symbol listed in this directory.

All mail for the Foreign Operations District, formerly the Office of International Operations, should be sent directly to them using the appropriate address listed in this directory.

Multi-District States

A breakdown of those districts which cover more than one state can be found in IRM 11(13)0.
